Wall of Fame Class of 2019 Honorees

Patricia DiGrigoli

Distinguished Community Member

Patricia served on the Ichabod Crane Board of Education from 1985-1994 and held terms as both President and Vice President.

She is a frequent volunteer/donor to district programs like the High School Teen Weekend Meal Program & Pantry, as well as the ICC Closet. Patricia is the first to ask if any district community programs need specific items and will be the first to donate them, like providing coats, hats and gloves for the ICC Closet in the colder months.

Her district contributions extend over many years, such as when she drove back and forth to make pick-ups in the early days of the Middle School Backpack Program. She's helped countless students, including making/paying for the costumes for her granddaughter's class play and continuing to do so long after her granddaughter moved on from the class.

Patricia's generosity extends beyond the school and into the community at large. Some, but not all, of her community service includes: President of the Columbia County Board of Health, Chairperson of the Valatie Ecumenical Food Pantry and a volunteer at St. John Baptist with their Community Thanksgiving & Easter Baskets.

Anthony Welcome

Distinguished Faculty/Staff

Anthony Welcome devoted his professional life to Ichabod Crane. Beginning as an employee in 1970, he never left until he retired in 2006.

He taught 4th & 5th grade until 1988 when he transitioned to administration, becoming Assistant Principal of the then two elementary schools and was promoted to Principal shortly after. In 1997, he moved on to the position of Primary School Principal, where he stayed until retirement.

Anthony is a great lover of theatre and over the years he's been a familiar sight in many ICC Acting Troupe productions including: Guys & Dolls (1998), Oklahoma (1999), Wizard of Oz (2000), Fiddler on Roof (2006) and Anything Goes (2008).

He ran for ICC Board of Education one year after retirement. He served as President from 2012-2018 and currently holds the position of Vice President. After many years of service, he'll be stepping down from the board at the end of this month.

Out in the local community, he's been involved in many programs and held many roles including: religious education teacher, little league coach, Kinderhook summer softball coach and, of course, a performer at the MacHayden Theater.

Congratulations to the Ichabod Crane Wall of Fame Class of 2019!
