

The Ichabod Crane Central School District (ICC) encourages the visitors of its social media pages to have open, thoughtful discussion. ICC social media pages are moderated and all comments are reviewed.

ICC respects the policies of each social media platform (e.g. Facebook, Twitter) and expects its fans, followers and users to do the same. Posted comments do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of ICC. Visitors who comment on ICC social media consent to the following guidelines and are solely responsible for their own comments.

ICC expects anyone who comments on ICC social media to:

- Be courteous and respectful
- Refrain from threatening, insulting or verbally abusive language
- Be on-topic about ICC
- Discuss and politely debate when appropriate, but don't attack

ICC prohibits commenting that:

- Violates local/state laws or school rules or policies
- Is intentionally misleading, factually incorrect, or libelous
- Has profane, obscene or mocking language
- Is discriminatory, harassing or threatening
- Is geared toward directly selling, soliciting, or advertising products/services that are not ICC affiliated
- Is pornographic or sexual in nature
- Infringes on the confidentiality or privacy of any party
- Infringes on copyright law

Comments that violate these standards will be removed from the social media page by the ICC page owner without notice.

Users, fans or followers who violate these standards:

- May be blocked from future access to ICC social media pages
- May be reported to law enforcement or supervisory authorities when appropriate
