Quarter 2, 2018-2019  Table of Contents

1. Table 1: This table is designed to track Target #1, Project 95, which aims to increase the graduation rate by $1 \%$ each year over the next five years. Baseline data is captured from the 1617 school year and targets reflect the 1\% annual increase through 2022.
2. Table 2a, Table 2b & Table 2c: These three tables are designed to track Target #2 which aims to reduce course failures in grade 6-12 by 5\%. Table 2a tracks course failures by subject area in the High School while Table 2b tracks course failures by subject in the Middle School. Table 2c tracks course failures by grade level as opposed to subject area for grades 6-12.
3. Table 3a (Part 1 & 2): These two tables are designed to track Target #3 which aims to increase the Mastery Level on High School Regents exams by 5\%. Table 3a, part 1, compares baseline Mastery level data from the 2017-2018 Regents results and establishes a target for each Regents exam based on a 5\% increase over baseline data. Table 3a, part 2, is designed to track progress on district developed common assessments as a predictor for meeting the target increase of students at the Mastery level.
4. Table 3b (Part 1 & 2): These two sets of tables are designed to also track Target #3 which aims to increase the proficiency rate by 5\% on State Assessments in Grades 3-8. Tables 3b, part 1, compare baseline proficiency rate data from the 2017-2018 State Assessment results in grade 3-8 and establish targets for Reading, Writing and Math for each grade level based on a 5\% increase over baseline data. Tables 3b, part 2, are designed to track progress on district common assessments in reading, writing and math as a predictor for meeting the target increase of students at the proficiency rate.
5. Table 4 (Part 1 \& Part 2): These tables are designed to track Target \#4 which aims to increase the number of $\mathrm{K}-2^{\text {nd }}$ grade students performing at or above grade level by $5 \%$ in Reading, Writing and Math. In Table 4, part1, baseline data is established from the 2017-2018 school year utilizing district adopted common assessment results. Targets reflect a $5 \%$ increase over baseline data. It should be noted that baseline data is unavailable for grade $1 \& 2$ in writing. Table 4a, part 2, is designed to track progress on district common assessments as a predictor for meeting the target increase of students in $\mathrm{K}-2^{\text {nd }}$ grade at or above grade level in Reading, Writing and Math.

The graduating class of 2019 is currently on track to exceed our target of $91.5 \%$. It is important to note that reporting on graduation data lags one year behind. Therefore 17-18 graduation data will be reflected on our 2018-2019 NYS Report Card. Although we will not meet the targeted $1 \%$ increase on the 2018-2019 NYS Report Card, we are on track with the current graduating class. There was a slight change to the projected graduation rate for the 2019 graduating class primarily due to students transferring in and out of district.

The target reduction was met in all subject areas with the exception of Technology and Music, which remained flat each with a very small course failure total number. The reduction in course failures was significant from 2017-2018 to 2018-2019 dropping from 240 to 150. Interventions for HS students now also includes a brand-new program, Connections, which targets at risk students by pairing staff members who volunteer to specific students to help them establish a sense of belonging and work to help them become more academically and socially on target.

Four out of ten subject areas met the targeted reduction for Q2. Math continues to have the greatest increase in course failures. Additional training on the newly adopted math series is scheduled for March 15th. Math Curriculum specialist through Questar have been scheduled to help support new math teachers. Academic Probation has been fully implemented as of the end of the first quarter which requires students to meet weekly with the AP and/or guidance counselor to discuss teacher progress reports. Triple A Data Meetings are now occurring twice a month focused specifically on reducing student results and course failures.

Quarter 2 total course failures by grade level decreased from 137 to 128 meeting the identified target. Grade level teams and/or departments are conducting data analysis by subject area through Triple A meetings to address those specific areas that demonstrated an increase in course failures. More systemic intervention strategies are being explored at the Middle School level to address the increased failure rate in grades 6-8.

The High School has identified the students failing in each grade level, with a specific focus on Grade 9 and Grade 12. Mr. Shull and Mr. Marturano will meet with each student in these grade levels to help students identify a plan for success. These students will also be considered for the Connections program as well as additional interventions such as Tiered Study Hall and after school Homework Center.

District common assessments are being utilized as a predictor towards meeting the $5 \%$ target increase.
Developing and utilizing common assessments is a new process for many grade levels/subjects.
Therefore, this continues to be a work in progress with an implementation gap in establishing valid data that is predictive in nature. Ongoing discussion and reflection is occurring to refine this process. A digital platform for data analysis, DataMate, was also implemented in fall of 2018.

RIDERS' PATHWAY TO SUCCESS

Baseline data is captured from the 2017-2018 New York State Assessments for grades 3-8.
Participation is a consideration in data analysis although demographics of students tested parallels the overall school population. In ELA, 57\% of students participated (19\% increase) while 53\% participated in Math ( $17 \%$ increase). This is significantly lower than the average participation rate across NYS which was $82 \%$. A steady increase since 2014-2015 in district participation is noted.

Grade 3 data collection is distinct from grades 4-8 due to different ELA programs and types of assessments utilized. Grade 3 baseline data assesses foundational skills at the start of the school year utilizing the Reading Street ELA Program. In grades 4-8, a common assessment by quarter is being utilized from the Journeys ELA Program. Ongoing discussion and reflection is occurring around the data generated specific to whether the results are a good indication of the students' mastery of grade level content. Collaborative work is taking place to determine the strongest and most informative progress monitoring tools. Training on the resources and assessment options available through the new math program is also ongoing for all K-8 staff.

Fountas and Pinnell's (F & P) Benchmark System is utilized in grades 3-5 to identify a student's reading level and determine if they are at proficiency levels. A target increase of $5 \%$ of students at or above grade level as determine by the F & P is being tracked. Note: A new edition of F & P was utilized beginning in the fall of 2018 which set new more rigorous expectations for all grade levels.

A new math series was adopted for grades K-8 in fall of 2018. Grade 3 utilized a beginning of the year benchmark that assesses knowledge and skills not yet taught to specifically measure student growth in grade level content. Grades 4-8 data reflects common assessment results at designated intervals during the course of the year. Ongoing discussion and reflection are occurring to develop consistency in assessments and determine the most informative progress monitoring tools. Consideration is specifically being given to identifying assessments that are strong predictors of students' mastery of grade level content.

Note: Kindergarten through Grade 2 was unable to generate baseline data from 2017-2018 in writing.

Fountas and Pinnell's (F \& P) Benchmark System is also utilized in K-2 to determine a student's individual reading level. Targets reflect a $5 \%$ increase over 2017-2018 end of year data. The utilization of the new edition of $\mathrm{F} \& \mathrm{P}$ has raised expectations for $\mathrm{K}-2$ students to meet proficiency levels. Often primary age students make the biggest gains in the second half of the school year.

Progress monitoring in $\mathrm{K}-2$ is occurring in writing through common writing tasks. Ongoing professional development and grade level collaboration is occurring to establish common writing prompts, student rubrics and teacher rubrics to ensure consistency in expectations of a proficient writer at each grade level. This is a work in progress.

A beginning of the year assessment in grades $1 & 2$, assessed students’ current level of understanding of the grade level skills yet to be taught. Thus there was only a small percentage in each grade at or above proficiency levels. The mid-year assessment was based on skills taught to date.

Kindergarten does not administer a beginning of the year math assessment. The mid-year assessment for kindergarten is also based on skills taught year to date. Math readiness skills are also assessed three times per year individually in oral counting and number identification utilizing AIMS Web. The target increase is based on a 5\% increase over the 2017-2018 end of year final assessment.
