

County of Columbia

Chairman's Proclamation

Whereas, the 2020 graduating class of seniors began their final year of high school eagerly anticipating that special day in June when they were awarded their hard-earned diploma; and

Whereas, those same seniors had reached the point where just few short months remained until that day; and

Whereas, the historic coronavirus pandemic and the eventual lockdown procedures designed to keep everyone safe prevented a normal conclusion to the school year; and

Whereas, those extra measures forced the 2020 seniors to complete their high school careers in a hastily arranged online learning situation; and

Whereas, the 2020 class of seniors has successfully accomplished the tasks assigned to them despite these obstacles;

Now, therefore be it

Resolved, that Columbia County recognizes the extraordinary achievement of the 2020 class of fulfilling the requirements for graduation through hard work and dedication in these trying times; and be it further

Resolved, that Columbia County congratulates and honors the 2020 graduating classes of the Chatham Central School District, the Germantown School District, the Hudson City School District, the Ichabod Crane Central School District, the New Lebanon Central School District, and the Taconic Hills Central School District; and be it further

Resolved, that I, Matt B. Murell, Chairman of the Columbia County Board of Supervisors, hereby congratulate the 2020 Graduating Seniors.
