Since the very first day, Miss Hoffman has been a warm, amiable, and considerate classmate to her peers. We've observed her, on more than one occasion, offer a helping hand to those around her—even the adults. Gabby's smile and forthright approach has already made her a leader among her confrères. Speaking of those grown-ups, this young lady has been consistently courteous, well-mannered, and deferential to the adults around her. Moreover, Miss Gabby has been a conscientious and attentive student. This young lady's proactive and positive attitude has demonstrated an exemplary work ethic toward learning. We very much appreciate Gabby's thoughtful questions and insightful musings. They add to the texture of the lectures, and perhaps more importantly, have the potential of helping those around her gain a stronger grasp of the concepts introduced. Well done, Gabriella! Keep up the outstanding work.
