

Liam Sutton

I am pleased to announce Liam Sutton as our rider of the month for November. Liam is a hard worker and always puts forth his best effort. He advocates for himself when he is confused and doesn't understand something. Liam is kind, respectful, polite, and always willing to lend a helping hand. Liam should be proud of himself; he deserves this recognition. Congratulations Liam!!

Amalini Radha Simo

We are so pleased to announce Amalini Radha Simo as our Rider of the Month. Amalini is new to ICC this year, and she has made such a great transition to our school. Amalini is an enthusiastic participant in all subject areas. She enjoys learning about new topics and sharing her own experiences with the class. As a learner, Amalini is very curious and has a strong desire to be successful. She always makes sure she is confident with her understanding of new skills and confident to move forward by asking clarifying questions. Amalini is a strong leader in group work, while encouraging mutual respect among her peers. We are so happy to have Amalini here at ICC in our Rickert/Ooms class!!

Jacob Cruz

Mrs. Snyder and I would like to recognize Jacob Cruz as one of the Fifth Grade November Riders of the Month. It is a well deserved honor. Jacob works very hard and puts his best effort into everything he does. He accepts constructive criticism and strives to improve on anything he is asked to work on. Jacob is respectful to both adults and his classmates. His willingness to help others knows no bounds. Jacob never complains when we ask him to help translate for other students and is kind and understanding to the people he is translating for. He really went out of his way to help two new students acclimate to coming into a classroom after the year had begun. We consider ourselves fortunate to have Jacob in our class.

Enzo Lazzara

Team MPHD recognizes Enzo Lazzara as November's Rider of the Month. Throughout the penultimate month of 2022, and indeed since the very first week of school, young Mr. Lazzara has shown a level of respect and maturity unveiling a redoubtable charm, august class, and self-deprecating refinement often written about by the many poetic bards of yore regarding virtuous knights and chevaliers. What a charismatic young man! It certainly goes without saying that we sincerely appreciate Enzo's exemplary conduct. With respect to scholarship, we have observed that Mr. Enzo Lazzara is a student, as well as a serious learner, par excellence. This sixth-grader's diligent, insightful, and ruminative nature denotes an underlying commitment to self-mastery, growth, erudition. It has been an absolute pleasure working with this enthusiastic young man. Congratulations, Enzo! You are most deserving of this recognition. Excelsior!

Gus Gonyea

We are excited to announce that Gus Gonyea is our Rider of the Month! Gus is having an amazing school year in sixth grade. He is responsible, respectful, and has a great work ethic. Gus listens carefully to directions and puts forth his best effort on class activities. Gus is a leader within his peers groups. He has proven to be a team player, keeping his group members on-track when needed. In all classes, Gus takes time to talk with his teachers, asks questions, and works to be a helper within our classroom communities. Gus's vocabulary and comprehension skills are soaring in ELA. In math, he is a master of decimal operations. Way to go, Gus!

Erin Mason

We are pleased to announce that Erin Mason is our Team 7 Rider of the Month. Erin has demonstrated an excellent work ethic and strives to do her best. She stays after school, asks questions and is diligent in her work. Erin is helpful and kind, and can work with anyone. She is kind, thoughtful and conscientious. We are so happy to have you on Team 7 Erin! Congratulations!

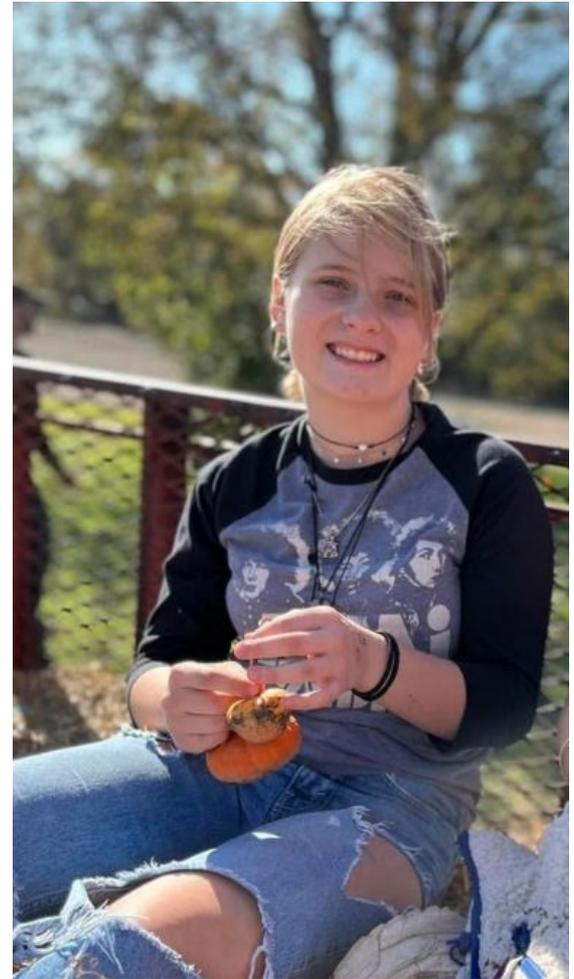

Connor Restifo

Team 7 is proud to announce that Connor Restifo is our November Rider of the Month. You will not find a more hard-working young man than Connor. He is diligent and focused on his academics. Connor is also a gifted artist. He has a creative flair for anything involving drawing or art. Finally, Connor always strives to do his best. He never likes to settle for work that is not up to his high standards. These qualities make him an outstanding Rider! Congratulations Connor!!

Genevieve Kuhnen

Genevieve goes out of her way to be helpful. She is kind and considerate to her peers and teachers. She always goes the extra mile to be helpful by taking down chairs in the morning or picking up students' materials if they fall. Her work ethic is excellent! She always does her work on time and the quality is fantastic. She works hard and proves it.

Liliana Loyola

Liliana is a great role model. Her teachers and classmates are so thankful to have her in the classroom. She offers assistance to her peers, she is always on task, and she is kind. Liliana is conscientious and holds herself to very high standards. She does not hesitate to make improvements to her work, support others, or initiate academic tasks. Thank you for always doing your best, Liliana!

Leita Albertson

We are pleased to announce Leita Albertson as the Rider of the Month for November on Team 8. Leita has shown an excellent work ethic and drive to do well in her classes. Leita is always willing to help another student in her classes. For always doing her best and helping others to do their best Team 8 is proud to recognize Leita as our Rider of the Month.

Kyle Stickles

Team 8 is pleased to announce Kyle Stickles as the Rider of the Month for November. Kyle is an excellent student who always strives to do his best. He is well liked by his classmates because he is always nice and helps any student out who needs it. He also participates in class and offers excellent insight into the discussions we are having on any topic. Kyle has overcome many challenges and does it without complaining. He is an excellent role model to his peers and shows maturity beyond his years. Thank you for being a great student and a great kid.

P.S. Go Jets!
