

Bratten Bowen

It is a pleasure to announce Bratten Bowen as our Rider of the Month! He comes to school each day with a smile on his face and ready to learn. He always gives his best effort, even when things are difficult. He is always willing to lend a helping hand to both teachers and peers. He has grown so much this year, both socially and academically. He is a thoughtful and caring student and it is a pleasure to have him in class.

Keep up the good work, we are so proud of you, Bratten!

Oliver Bartels

It is our honor to announce Oliver Bartels as our Rider of the Month! We have been impressed with Oliver's effort, diligence and responsibility this quarter. Oliver arrives and departs each day with a smile and a positive attitude; he is a ray of sunshine for our classroom! Oliver has been persevering and gaining so much success. He is thoughtful and caring towards his classmates. We appreciate Oliver's sincerity and sense of humor.

We are so proud of Oliver!

Layla Park

It is a pleasure to honor Layla Park with the December Rider award. Increasing responsibility, independence, and confidence have been Layla's focus since September. She is growing as a learner and a leader, increasing her participation in discussions and our class community. She never hesitates to offer help and support to adults and fellow classmates. Layla does not hesitate to advocate for herself when the need arises. Layla, you are rocking fifth grade!

Congratulations and we are so proud!

Rebekah McDonald

Our team is pleased to announce Rebekah McDonald as Rider of the Month. Rebekah is making great progress this year! She is taking on more responsibilities such as band, chorus, and science class! Her attendance has improved and she is maturing every day! She is a kind, caring student that we are lucky to have!

Keep up the great work, Rebekah!

Jillian Shull

We are honored to announce that Jillian Shull is our Rider of the Month! Jillian consistently puts forth her best effort in all of her classes. She shows excellent academic and organizational skills. Jillian is patient and shows kindness to all. She greets her teachers and peers with a bright smile at the beginning of each class. Jillian is an active participant and truly values her education. We are very proud of Jillian and her hard work in sixth grade.

Congratulations, Jillian!

Landon Scali

It is our honor to present Landon Scali as our Rider of the Month. Landon is respectful, responsible, and a role model to his peers. He brings energy to the classroom and is always willing to help. Landon always encourages others and gives out compliments to classmates when they are successful. He has a strong work ethic and continues to make great strides in his academic performance. Landon, keep up the great work.

We are so proud of you, congratulations!

Mackenzie Walko

Mackenzie Walko is our December Rider of the Month! Mackenzie is a kind and empathetic student. In addition to being a hard worker, she cares about the success of others around her. She is patient and encouraging with her classmates. She is able to notice when a classmate may be having a rough day and she reaches out to cheer them up. Mackenzie's positive attitude and compassion make our classroom a nice place to learn.

Thank you Mackenzie for all you do!

Anali Gomez

Team 7 is proud to announce that Anali Gomez is our December Rider of the Month! Anali is a kind person. She is always willing to include everyone and help her classmates whenever she can. She is a leader, not a follower. Anali is often the first one to offer help to someone in need. She also is a good student who tries her hardest and is always prepared. Anali always works well with anyone and is always engaged in class. Anali, we think you are really special!

Congratulations, Anali!

Daniel Russell

Team 7 is pleased to announce that Daniel Russell is our December Rider of the Month. Daniel is a very good student. He is conscientious and consistently prepared. He always has a charged chromebook, a pencil and a willingness to work. Daniel is polite and cooperative in class, which makes him a pleasure to have on the team! We can always depend on Daniel. He is a good friend and can work with anyone. He is always respectful to his teachers and classmates. Daniel, we are grateful you are a part of our team!

Congratulations on this amazing honor!

Makayla Veshia

Makayla demonstrates Rider Academics by actively participating in class. She advocates for herself and others. She is kind and helpful to her classmates, perseverant, and always brings a smile to each of her classes. She instantly became a great addition to Team 7/8, and we are so happy to have such a great role model on our team!

Way to go!

Serena Vick

Serena is exceptionally hard-working, conscientious, and supportive of others. She dedicates herself to the highest standard to be sure that her best work is put forward, and will still continue to strive for perfection. She brings this energy and work ethic to all of her activities- academic, artistic, and athletic. Team 7/8 has been so thankful to see Serena's awesomeness, and will continue to cheer her on all the way!

We are so proud!

Scarlet Barrios-Lopez

Team 8 would like to recognize Scarlet Barrios-Lopez as our Rider of the Month for December! Scarlet is a hard-working student who is always willing to help others. Scarlet takes pride in her work and will ask for help as needed. Scarlet shows great character inside the classroom and always has a positive attitude.

Keep up the good work, Scarlet!

Noah Malmborg

Team 8 is pleased to announce Noah Malmborg as our Rider of the Month! Noah has a positive outlook; he walks into class with a smile on his face, ready to conquer the day. He takes pride in his work, and always does his best. In the classroom, Noah is a role model as he participates and will ask questions. Most importantly, Noah is extremely kind; he takes time to say hi and talk to his teachers and peers. Noah takes on challenges with stride and we are proud to recognize him as this month's Rider!

Way to go Noah!

