

High School Riders of the Month

NOVEMBER 2022

EMMA NELSON

Emma is a very hard-working student that excels in school. She comes to class with a positive attitude and strives to do well. Emma is also very involved with many clubs and activities after school. She has helped out a lot with Interact Club making T-shirts to raise money for gift bags that (were) given to residents at The Grand nursing home. Emma also helped with the Trick-or-Treat for Hunger service project and collected many bags of food around her neighborhood. Emma is a kind, giving, individual that really enjoys helping others in need.

SANDRA RUIZ

Sandra is not only a top student in Global Studies, Sandra not only continues to grow in her skills, but is unbelievably helpful with her fellow students. She can be counted on to assist anytime she is asked. She will also take it upon herself to support and help her fellow students when they are in need.

LUKE PROFERA

Luke has really started to break out of his shell in class. He said he never wanted to talk, but now he is active in conversation and works to even make other students participate. Luke has a great sense of humor. He also has been very motivated with his work in class, emailing teachers to ensure he is up to date and to ask questions if needed. Luke is a positive role model for his peers, even making sure his seat partner also gets his assignments in.

MAX LOPEZ

Max has been working so hard in math and has seen great results. He is a great student to have in class and is always pleasant, respectful and appreciative of any help he receives.

SETH PARKISON

Seth is a polite, respectful and hardworking student. He is a student that extends himself to help others and has taken a leadership role in the classroom. Seth's strong sense of responsibility and character makes him a great role model for other students.

AXTON NACK

Axton brings a flood of positive energy to the classroom. He is fun and enthusiastic in class while also being hardworking. Axton is motivated to be successful academically and is a pleasure to have in class.

JADYN CARTWRIGHT

Jadyn is an excellent student who is kind, positive and helpful to her peers and staff. Several times Jadyn has gone above and beyond to help staff after hours in order to make her school and the campus a better place. Jadyn also participates on the field hockey team and works part-time on the weekends.

JEANNE STUPPLEBEEN

Jeanne has shown outstanding effort and improvement. She is a hard worker, kind, and an all-around great person.

Congrats!
