

High School Riders of the Month

FEBRUARY 2023

KIMBERLY STUPPLEBEEN

Kimberly is always in high spirits when she comes to class. She is a hardworking student who is ready and willing to help others in and out of class.

DUNCAN TEASDALE-ULRICH

Duncan is a pleasure to have in class. They are always prepared, happy to answer questions and work hard each day.

SARAH MCDONALD

Sarah is interested and enthusiastic about many different things and enjoys discussing them. She brings a lot of knowledge to class discussions and adds much to the lessons. In addition to being well-read, Sarah is also kind and compassionate.

GRACE PIZZA

Grace is an outstanding student. She is responsible and dependable - always giving her best effort. Grace is exceptionally kind to both students and peers. She is a genuine pleasure to have in class.

MARK COSTANZO

Mark has consistently been a hardworking, dedicated student in AP US History this year. He has improved over the year, and has become a leader in class. Additionally, Mark joined the Model UN team this year and did a fantastic job in his committee at the Harvard Model UN Conference.

DAVID OLDRICH

David is an all-around hard worker and a great example at ICC. On top of pushing himself in AP US History and achieving new heights, he's involved in indoor track and Model UN. At the Harvard Model UN Conference, David was a leader in his committee, making his voice prominent in ECOFIN.

KIARA HOYT

Kiara consistently adds to the class conversations about our reading, and she demonstrates maturity, sincerity, and genuine insight while doing so. Kiara's maturity and leadership qualities have really grown this year. It has been great to see her develop into such a responsible and capable individual!

HAYLEE SOUTHCOTT

Haylee is an excellent student who strives to turn in her best work which is always a reflection of those efforts. She is insightful and meticulous when it comes to exploring class content. In addition, Haylee is someone who is inclusive and open to trying new things. She is not afraid to ask questions so that she can improve and become the best version of herself, whether that is in the classroom or in athletics.

Congrats!
