

Dante Liddle

Our team is proud to announce Dante Liddle as the Rider of the Month. Dante is a positive, happy go-lucky, student that brightens our day! Dante has a giggle that can be heard throughout the school hallways and always puts us in a good mood. Dante has made incredible progress this school year and we are so proud of him. He is truly a pleasure to work with and warms our hearts each day! Congratulations Dante, thank you for being you!

Kevin Mauricio Romero

It is our pleasure to announce Kevin Mauricio Romero as our Rider of the Month. Kevin is not only a hard working and responsible student, but is always participating and engaged in lessons and activities. He is self-motivated and will often get to work without extra prompting. But above all, his personality is what shines through and makes working with Kevin such a pleasure!

Josh Bailey

I am pleased to announce Josh Bailey as our Rider of the Month. Josh has put forth great effort this month. He has been working on staying more focused in class. I am very proud of how hard he's been working on completing homework and class assignments on time. Josh is an enthusiastic young man who always has a story to tell. He is kind and helpful and always wants to please. You should be proud of yourself Josh! Keep working hard!!

Lauryssa Jennings

Mrs. Middleton & Mrs. Tollerton are pleased to announce Lauryssa Jennings as our Rider of the Month for February. Lauryssa is a ray of sunshine in our room throughout each school day. Lauryssa is kind and considerate of all of her peers, and is always willing to share with or help out those in need. Lauryssa shows a desire to learn and a willingness to participate in class discussions. Lauryssa has a wonderful sense of humor and a smile to warm your heart. We are so proud of Lauryssa and her excellent efforts.

Owen Bartels

It is our pleasure to announce Owen Bartels as our Rider of the Month. Owen is a positive asset to any classroom he enters. He can always be found with a smile on his face and offering a helping hand (or pencil!) to anyone in need. His peers say that he's one of the nicest people they know. Owen can turn any assignment, direction, or game into a football metaphor. Thank you for always kickin' off our classroom on a positive note.

Brooklyn Norton

We are excited to announce that Brooklyn Norton is our Rider of the Month! Brooklyn has shown tremendous growth in her effort, organization, and academic ability this school year. She is a hard worker and knows how to set goals in order to achieve. Brooklyn is a responsible student, consistently doing her best to complete assignments and helping her peers to stay on-track. Brooklyn's confidence has increased throughout the year, and it shows in the way she participates during class. Brooklyn is dependable and a good friend to her peers. We are very proud of you, Brooklyn. Keep up the great work!

William Duffy

Congratulations to this month's Rider of the Month, William Duffy! Will is a kind, hardworking student who deserves to be recognized for his efforts. Will is a curious student with many interests. Will is a member of the Book Club, Chess Club, and DC Club. He takes advantage of opportunities to be involved and help others. It is nice to see Will become an active contributor and participant in the Middle School!

Xitlali Cruz

Team 7 is proud to announce that our February Rider of the Month is Xitlali Cruz. In the short time that we have known Xitlali she has persevered over a language barrier, being new to our community, and figuring out middle school life in a new country. Xitlali is always engaged in class. She is polite and helpful to others. We are excited to see what Xitlali accomplishes in the future! Congratulations!

Sophie Shultis

Team 7 is excited to announce that our February Rider of the Month is Sophie Shultis. Sophie has demonstrated all of the qualities we look for in a Rider. She is an excellent student, helpful to her teachers, and always engaged in class. Sophie participates and leads class discussions. Most importantly Sophie is a kind and caring person. Recently, Sophie helped welcome a new student in her homeroom by introducing her to all of her new classmates. Great job Sophie! We think you truly deserve this award.

Brooklyn Nabozny

Brooklyn is a very polite student that brings an intellectually engaging and humorous atmosphere to the classroom. He is helpful and has genuine concern for other students and teachers. Brooklyn always greets his teachers with a hello and wishes them a good day at the end of class. Brooklyn offers insightful perspective to any class discussion and volunteers in class to offer help when he sees a need.

Natalie Hickey

Natalie is a very personable young lady that puts forth her most amazing effort in everything she does. From her dedication to her schoolwork to maintaining close personal relationships with her peers, Natalie stands out as a role model for other students. Thank you Natalie!

Anthony Guo

We are pleased to announce that the Rider of the month for February for Team 8 is Anthony Guo. Anthony works very hard on all of his assignments in all of his classes. He is always prepared for class and makes sure that he studies for tests and quizzes. Anthony has a very interesting sense of humor and is liked by his classmates. Anthony is willing to work with any of his peers on his classroom projects and group activities. Keep up the great work , Anthony.

Amber Eigenbrodt

Team 8 is proud to announce that Amber Eigenbrodt is our February Rider of the Month! Amber is conscientious, hard-working, and has a consistently positive demeanor. She has a strong work ethic and is respected by both her peers and her teachers. Congratulations, Amber on this award and all of your accomplishments!
