

Brenda Rodriguez

We are excited to announce Brenda as our Rider of the Month! She is a conscientious and hard working student, always putting her best effort into everything she does. She is a positive role model in the classroom showing kindness to everyone. We are lucky to be able to spend our days with Brenda.

Great work Brenda. We are very proud of you!

Gabriel Moran

We are excited to announce Gabriel Moran as our student of the month. Gabe is a hard working and productive member of our classroom. He always participates enthusiastically in classroom discussions. He has a great sense of humor and brings positive energy to the room every day. He is always willing to try new things and takes on any task with a great attitude. Keep up the good work Gabe! We are very proud of you!

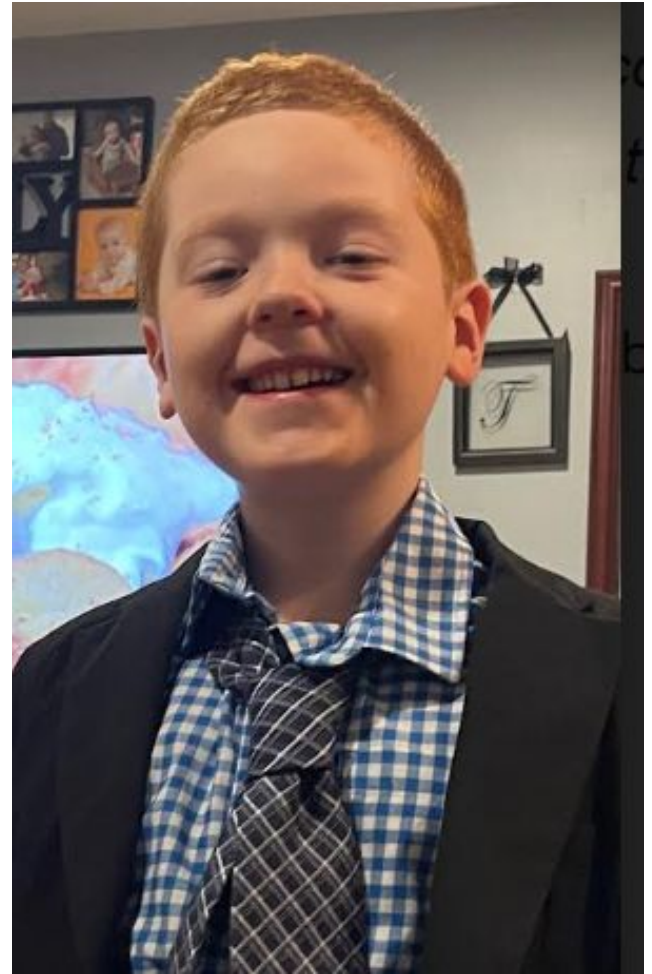

Anderly Cirillo

Just joining our class in March, Anderly Cirillo overcame the enormous task of learning many routines, expectations, classmates, as well as a new school in a short amount of time. He often shares insights and his depth of knowledge enhances our discussions. Anderly is a conscientious student, completing quality work, always on time. He is at ease with helping and interacting with adults and classmates alike. We are lucky to have Anderly as a classmate and now part of our Ichabod Crane community.

Evan Eastman

Our team is excited to announce Evan Eastman as our Rider of the Month! Evan is growing and maturing everyday and has made so much progress in our classroom! Evan is a kind, friendly, and charismatic student. He loves school and tells us he misses us the very next day. We are pushing him and encouraging him to try new things and he is taking on the challenge! He is helpful and is always cleaning up our classroom for us. We are so lucky to have him in our room! Keep up the good work Evan!

Cassandra Mott-Propor

Cassie works very hard to perform academically at the highest level, which has shown in the grades on her report card. She always has her homework completed and handed in on time. Cassie is an inquisitive learner who always wants to learn more about a topic. She enjoys researching information about other countries (their location and flags) as well as her love of birds. Team 6 appreciates her hard work. Keep it up, Cassie!

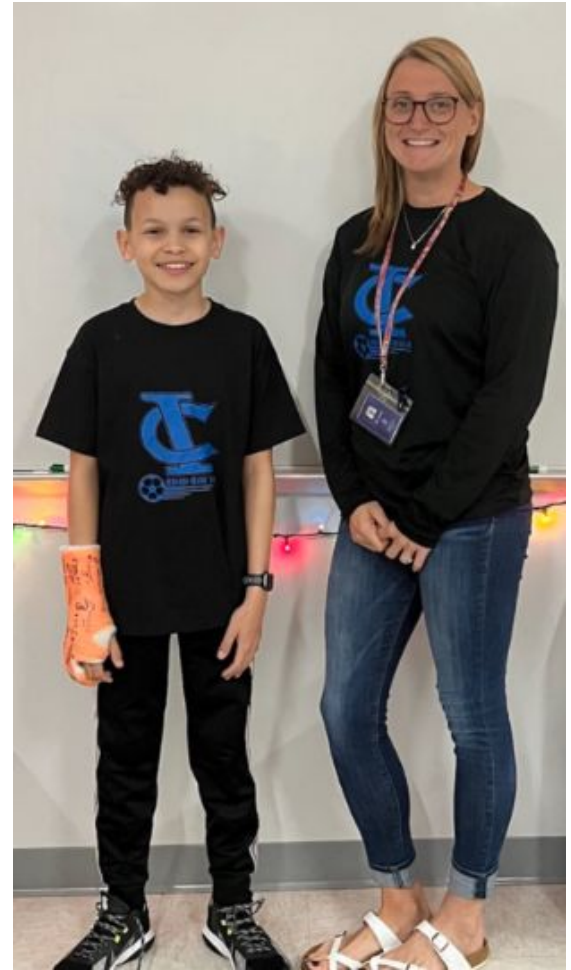

Xavier Sadowski

We are excited to announce that Xavier Sadowski is our Rider of the Month! It has been an outstanding year for Xavier. He entered sixth grade as a compassionate young man, and has spent this year being a helpful classmate while taking care of his own responsibilities. Xavier exhibits kindness and dependability. Each day, Xavier greets his teachers with a smile on his face and wants to know how he can help. When it comes to academics, Xavier is serious about learning and puts forth his best effort. Creative assignments appear to be Xavier's favorite, and that is where he truly shines! Xavier is an avid reader and can always be found with a book. He enjoys discussing his love of reading, and we know this will carry him far. Way to go, Xavier! We are very proud of you!

Maddox Downes

We are proud to announce Maddox Downes as our Rider of the Month. The hardwork and determination of Maddox does not go unnoticed. He makes a difference in any classroom he enters. He is helpful to not only his teachers but his classmates as well. Maddox is empathetic and kind to everyone. He actively participates and strives for excellence in all academic areas. We can't wait to see the amazing things Maddox will accomplish in the future! Keep up the good work.

Allorra Cirillo

Team 7 is proud to announce that Allorra Cirillo is our April Rider of the Month. Allorra is new to the district and has fully embraced being an Ichabod Crane Rider. Without missing a beat, she joined clubs, made friends and made her mark in academics. We really feel like we hit the jackpot with Allorra! She participates in class discussions, will work well with anyone, and is an excellent writer & artist. Allorra is quick to step in to help in any way she can and never fails to say thank you to her teachers at the end of class. We look forward to her optimism and happy demeanor every day! Congratulations Allorra! We really love having you on our team!

Rocco Pelizza

Team 7 is happy to announce that Rocco Pelizza is our April Rider of the Month. Rocco is an all around cool-cat. Sure and steady, he gets his work done, stays engaged in class, and is a role model to his peers. We can always depend on him to stay on task and be a leader in groups. He gets along great with everyone so it is never a problem! Rocco's patient and laid-back personality provides a perfect foil to the usual shenanigans of 7th grade life. He has many friends, plays some mean baseball and always shows up to do the work at school. Rocco is polite, helpful and kind-hearted. We believe he has a bright future ahead! Congratulations Rocco!

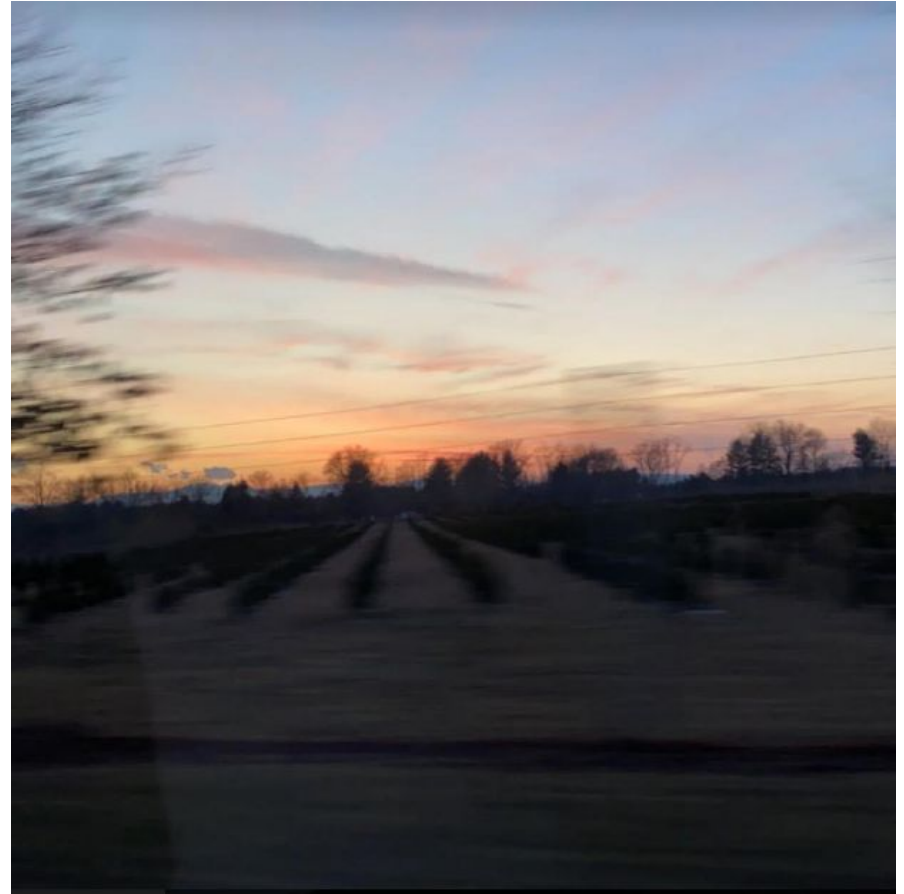

Ava Spangler

Team 7/8 wants to recognize what an outstanding student and person Ava is! Her teachers and peers describe her as super helpful, polite, and friendly. On top of this, Ava consistently puts excellent effort in school work, demonstrates integrity, honesty, and responsibility. These essential Rider traits make Ava a fantastic role model for everyone! Thank you for being you!

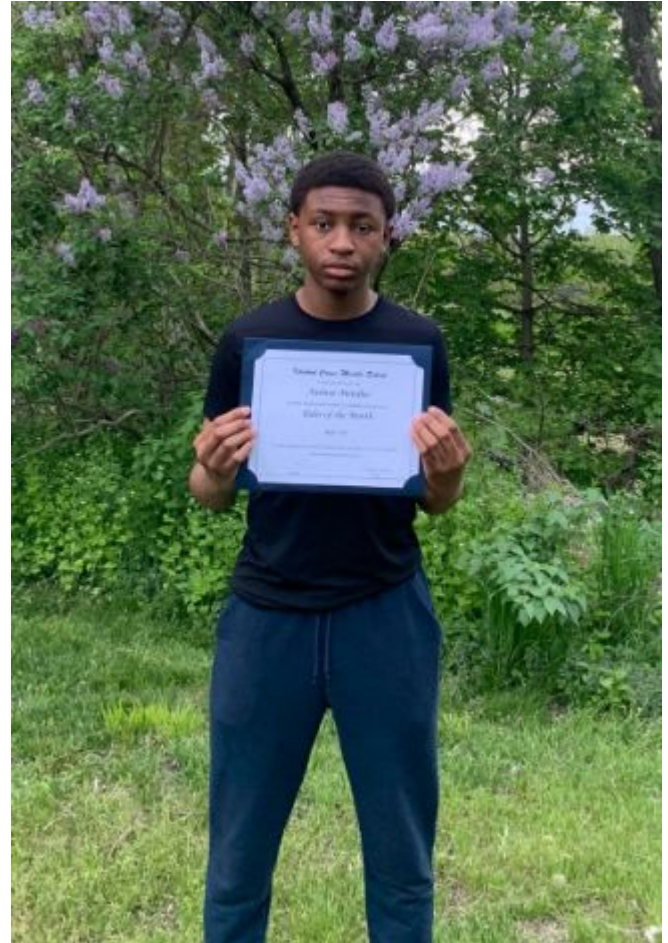

Angelyn Mauricio-Romero

Team 7/8 feels so lucky to have Angie on our team. All year, Angie has demonstrated some of the most important Rider traits: kindness and conscientiousness. She is extremely polite to everyone in the school and puts excellent effort into all of her work. Angie is perseverant and positive- these will continue to lead her to success as a student, person, and role model. Thank you Angie!

Andrew Metellus

Team 8 is proud to select Andrew Metellus as the Rider of the Month for April. Andrew is a very hard worker in all of his classes and strives for excellence in everything he does. He offers help to his fellow classmates and friends when it is needed. Andrew is also an excellent athlete and always puts in great effort on the field as well. He participates in class and achieves high academic standards. The team appreciates Andrew's work ethic and looks forward to his bright future. Congratulations Andrew!

Paige Roberts

Team 8 is very pleased to announce Paige Roberts as our Rider of the Month. Throughout the past year, Paige has performed consistently well; she shows up almost everyday, does her work, and always wears a smile on her face. Paige is kind to everyone and has made sure everyone feels welcomed and belongs in class. Paige is honest, but polite and maintains this relationship with her peers and teachers. Keep up the good work, Paige!
