

Adeline Cabral

It is our pleasure to recognize Adeline Cabral as our Rider of the Month. Addie is a shining example of kindness and helpfulness, always going out of her way to lend a hand to her peers. Her strong work ethic is truly commendable, as she consistently puts in the effort to produce high-quality work. She is thoughtful and respectful towards others, and her cooperative nature makes her a joy to work with. Additionally, she has a warm personality that makes her peers feel comfortable around her. She approaches her tasks with thoroughness and always completes them to the best of her ability. She is undeniably smart and never hesitates to share her thoughtful insights and ideas. Despite her many strengths, she remains modest and humble. We are grateful for Addie this year!

Madisyn Kaminski

I am excited to announce Madisyn Kaminski as our Rider of the Month. Madisyn comes to us from Holy Spirit and she has quickly made Ichabod Crane her home. Madisyn's upbeat demeanor and kind disposition inspire all. Her willingness to learn and obvious love for school motivates other students in the class. She has a strong work ethic, participates often and is always prepared for class. Madisyn is very helpful to adults as well as her peers. Madisyn witnessed a situation where a student was struggling in the hallway, and without batting an eye, she offered a helping hand, even if it meant giving up her lunch. She is a very caring young lady and well respected by others. Welcome, Madisyn, and congratulations on being Rider of the Month.

Emma Halstead

What a wonderful addition Emma Halstead has been to our class! Emma's hardworking efforts are shown in her work, her organization, and her determination to try her best. Since September, Emma has shown consideration and respect to her classmates and teachers. Starting each day with a smile and enthusiasm, Emma's dedication as a member of our class is well-deserving of our Rider of the Month award. Congratulations, Emma!

Frankie Roy

We are pleased to present Frankie Roy with Rider of the Month for November. Frankie is a conscientious, engaged, and responsible student. As a role model for others, she holds herself to a high standard. She is always willing to participate and add to classroom discussions with higher level thinking. We appreciate her dedication to the classroom from color coding notes to always volunteering to help others. Congratulations Frankie on being our Rider of the Month.

Alexandra Clark

Alexandra (Alli) Clark as our November Rider of the Month. Alli seems quiet and shy, but don't let her fool you. Once you get to know her, you see she is funny, kind, helpful and trustworthy, some of the most admirable characteristics a person can possess. She is also very conscientious, gets her work done on time, and actively participates in class. Clearly she is a great role model! Alli enjoys lots and lots of activities outside of the school day. Some of them are; playing soccer, making youtube videos, spending time with her family, friends and her dog, reading mystery books, decorating and playing in the band. Congratulations to such an exciting kid!

Elayna Davis

We are excited to announce that Elayna Davis is our Rider of the Month! Elayna is hardworking and eager to learn. Elayna asks important questions to ensure her own understanding. She never gives up and strives to do well in all of her classes. Elayna participates often and works well with her peers. We are pleased with Elayna's consistent effort and overall progress this year in sixth grade. Congratulations and keep up the great work, Elayna!

Jenrri Cruz-Bautista

It is with great pleasure that team 7 announces our Rider of the Month for November. Jenrri Cruz-Bautista has demonstrated a true commitment to his studies. His academic achievements are a testament to his hard work and perseverance. In addition to his coursework, Jenrri consistently engages in classroom discussions, collaborates with his peers, and is overall a very polite and respectful student. Jenrri is also coming off a great fall soccer season where he was an integral part of the team. Congratulations Jenrri!

Aliyah Dozier

Team 7 is very excited to award Rider of the Month to Aliyah Dozier. Aliyah is kind, trustworthy, and always puts forth excellent effort in class. She is respected by her peers and teachers alike. Aliyah approaches any challenge with both patience and perseverance, making her an ideal recipient of this award. Congratulations, Aliyah!

Owen Bartels

Team 7/8 is proud to announce that Owen Bartels is our November Rider of the Month. This month we celebrate a young man who exhibits kindness and responsibility every day. He's unfailingly polite, showing genuine respect in every interaction. Always ready to help, Owen's friendly nature effortlessly connects with others, making everyone feel like a friend. As a student, he succeeds academically while remaining humble and eager to learn. A great friend, he provides help and support to his classmates. There is no better example of the qualities that make a Rider than Owen. Congratulations!

Madison Hayes

Team 7/8 is happy to announce that Madison Hayes is our November Rider of the Month. Madison is responsible and reliable. Her consistent dedication to her studies sets a positive example for everyone. Madison actively participates in class discussions and contributes valuable insights that make her an asset to our classes. Madison's unwavering work ethic makes her a standout student. As her teachers over the last two years, we are all so proud of Madison's growth and maturity. We see great things in her future. Keep up the good work Madison!

Caroline Rapport

Caroline exemplifies Rider Pride. As a student athlete, she demonstrates leadership, teamwork, and excellent effort in the classroom and in the game. Caroline works with everyone as a supportive, encouraging, task-oriented partner. She is a role model for expectations in the classroom. Caroline prioritizes her responsibilities, balancing homework and practice schedules. She makes the process look effortless, as she gets everything done well, but we can appreciate the hard work that it really takes! Amazing work Caroline- thank you!

Evan DeMatteo

Team 8 is so thankful to have Evan on our team! Evan is a strong leader among his peers. He sets a good example of being responsible, accountable and an active learner in all of his classes. Evan is always willing to help his peers get clarification on work or pair up for class activities and assignments. He is always kind, respectful and has a bright disposition everyday! Keep up the great work Evan!
