

Wanna Germain

We are pleased to announce Wanna Germain as the Rider of the Month! Wanna comes to school with a big smile every day and wants to learn! She switches between several classrooms and is kind to all her classmates! Without hesitation she will help classmates and motivate them to complete their work. Wanna is responsible in following her schedule and navigating the school. She is making progress in all areas of academic and social responsibilities. We are so lucky to have Wanna in our class! Keep up the good work Wanna!

Dorothy Scoville

It is my pleasure to recognize Dorothy Scoville as our Rider of the Month. Dottie is a kind, sweet, smart, caring, responsible young lady who has put forth great effort this month. She comes in each day with a smile on her face. Dottie has a positive attitude and leads by example. She is polite and respectful towards her classmates and teachers and is always willing to help others. Great job Dottie, keep up the great work!!!!

Sophia Bornt

We are excited to announce Sophia Bornt as our Rider of the Month. Sophia possesses all of those traits we hope our Riders will have: kindness, compassion, collaboration, curiosity, and perseverance. Sophia contributes so much to our classroom with her participation and fun personality. She is always willing to work hard and take constructive criticism. Sophia has her own style and she shines as an individual. Keep being you, Sophia. You're going places!!

Jazmin Perez

Jazmin Perez is my December Rider of the Month. She is a kind hearted, conscientious student who always makes sure to include others with a smile. Jazmin comes to school prepared and ready to learn. She is self motivated and perseveres through difficult assignments, always doing her best. Jazmin takes responsibility for herself and her work, yet finds time to cheerfully help others who may need it. Congratulations Jazmin - I am grateful to have you in my class!

Abby Zincio

We are excited to announce that Abby Zincio is our Rider of the Month for December. This is Abby's first year attending the Ichabod Crane School District and she has been a delightful addition to the Rider family. Abby quickly made new friends and from the start has portrayed kindness and friendliness to all that have crossed her path. In addition to this, Abby is a fluent reader and strives to read every night at home. Abby always begins her school day with a smile and has a warming and welcoming personality that makes her a joy to have in the classroom. Rider of the Month is certainly well deserved for Abby! Congratulations!

Brooke Wilson

We are pleased to announce that Brooke Wilson is our Rider of the Month! Brooke is a conscientious student and always tries her best in all classes. Brooke is respectful to her teachers and peers. She has a warm personality and shows kindness when working with partners and in small groups. Brooke is responsible and hardworking. She puts forth great effort into her ELA writing assignments, always editing until the job is complete. Way to go, Brooke! We are so proud of you!

Malia Scali

We are so happy to announce Malia as Rider of the Month! She has been staying after, helping others, and working hard to get where she wants to be. Her maturity is commendable and we can always rely on Malia to make the right choices. She is respectful to all her classmates and teachers, having a warm and fun personality that makes everyone feel welcome and at ease. Malia might be seen reading a book, or laughing with friends in her spare time. Congratulations, Malia! This recognition is well deserved!

Elijah Craig

Team 7 is pleased to select Elijah Craig as the Rider of the Month for December. Elijah puts forth a great deal of effort in all of his classes. He is constantly participating and contributing to the discussions and is always willing to help his peers and teachers with whatever is needed. Elijah has a very positive attitude towards his education and leads by example inside and outside the school. Elijah is also an excellent athlete and is currently representing the school on the basketball team. Great job Elijah, keep up the good work!

Aven Cardinal-Schmitt

Team 7/8 is pleased to announce that Aven Cardinal-Schmitt is our December Rider of the Month. Aven is a stellar student who exemplifies both academic excellence and exceptional character. Always engaged and curious, Aven consistently excels in his studies and contributes valuable insights to class discussions. His friendly and approachable nature helps foster positive group collaborations. He is patient, kind and a wonderful asset to our classes and a good friend to all. We feel so very lucky to have you on the team! Congratulations Aven!

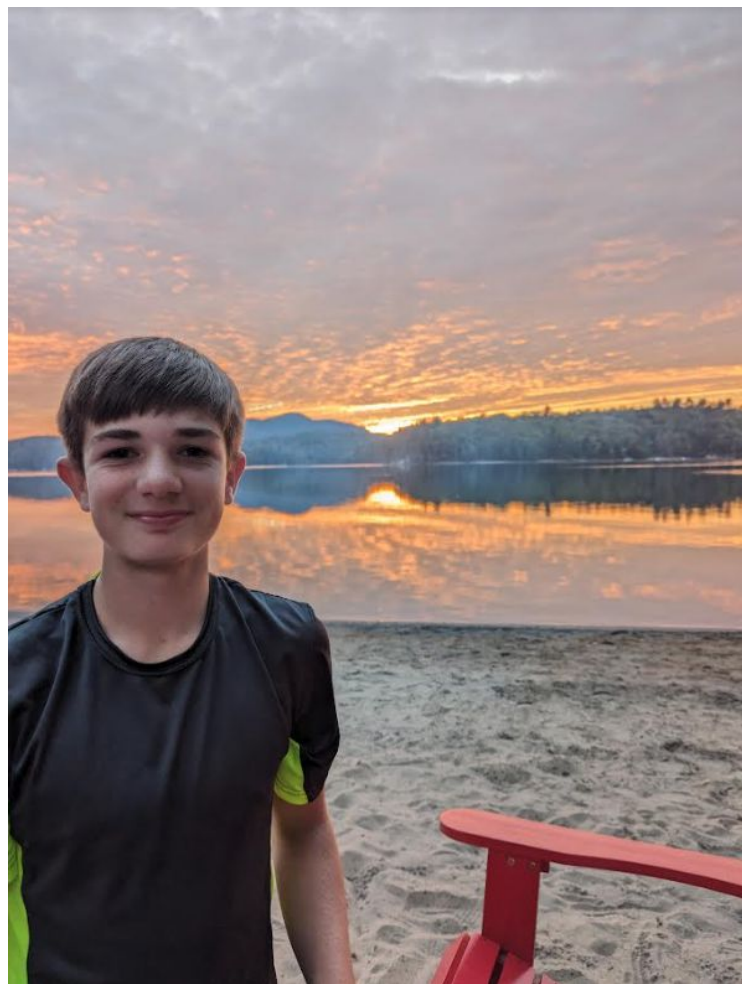

Heidi Wilary

It is with great enthusiasm that we announce Heidi Wilary as our Team 7/8 Rider of the Month. Heidi is a wonderful student who combines leadership, empathy, and academic excellence. She is a natural leader, inspiring others to take chances and excel in both academics and sports. Beyond her academic achievements, Heidi is a wonderful and supportive friend. She offers unwavering support and understanding to peers facing difficulties. Her genuine kindness and consideration make her a cherished friend within our school community. She is so much fun to have in class and never hesitates to see the humor in things. We enjoy having you on the team Heidi! Congratulations!

Joshua Kelley

Team 8 is so happy to have Josh Kelley on our team. Josh shines in the classroom. He is kind and helpful to everyone. He is consistently responsible and accountable, making him an excellent role model. Josh excels in leadership roles. He supports his cooperating group members, leading by example with regard to expectations and quality of work. Keep up the great work Josh!

Natalie Dunbar

Team 8 is so thankful for the opportunity to have Natalie on the team (again!). We were fortunate to have her as a 7th grader and now as an 8th grader, and we must say it's truly a gift to have her on the team! Natalie's teachers describe her as hard-working, resilient, reliable, and dependable. These traits make her an outstanding student and peer. Natalie has high standards for herself and others, that she shares in the most encouraging ways. Because of her fortitude and work ethic, we know Natalie's future is bright! We will be cheering her on all the way!
