

High School Riders of the Month

JANUARY 2024

HENRY LOPEZ-ZAPET

Henry has been working incredibly hard on his English and also working independently to master his content. He proactively offers explanations to others and is a source of humor and kindness in every class.

CARTER HOGANCAMP

Carter is always willing to lend a hand to others in the classroom, and is always willing to answer the tough questions. He's a true thinker who brings new ways of conceptualizing issues to his classmates.

AVIANAH WRIGHT

Avi is an astute student, and not afraid to be original. Her intellect and the high goals that she sets for herself will help her achieve great things.

JULIA WILLIAMS

Julia brings an exceptional maturity and strong work ethic to the class, and she is wonderfully creative. She uses her time well, and enjoys her classwork. She sets a very strong example for her peers, many of whom are juniors and seniors. She has outstanding potential in whatever directions she may choose.

OLIVIA MCCRUDDEN

Olivia is a hardworking student and athlete. In the classroom, athletics, and extracurriculars, Olivia seeks to learn and change and to become better at what she's doing. In indoor track, she is coachable and has found her stride. In Model UN, she holds an officer position and helped to lead the delegation at the Harvard Model UN Conference.

MARIA GUADALUPE TAPIA-MARTINEZ

Guadalupe is extremely helpful to her peers. She always has a smile on her face and is excited to help other students - even in classes that she has not taken. She will ask me to explain a new concept to both her and her friend so that she can help her friend figure it out. She loves helping others and spreads her positivity! She always brightens the days of those around her!

JAMES ABRAMS

James is nominated for Rider of the Month for really stepping it up this year. He is focusing on his academic schoolwork and has been staying after to get things done. He has also been a really good and supportive friend and has been trying to help others get through the year as well.

MAKAYLA WALSH

Makayla is an extremely courageous student that pushes herself to try processes outside of her comfort zone. She is a great leader and inspires others to follow or problem solve with passion towards her project. Excited to always help her achieve biggest challenges.

Congrats!
