

Bayley Allsop

It is my pleasure to announce Bayley Allsop as Rider of the Month. Bayley is an incredibly hard working student, always gives her best effort, and does so with a smile on her face. She comes to class prepared each day and enthusiastically takes part in her learning. She is kind and respectful to both classmates and teachers and is always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. We love having her as a part of our classroom community! Keep up the great work, Bayley!

Abigail Vicente

We are pleased to announce Abigail Vicente as Rider of the Month for January. Abigail is an extremely hard worker who puts her best effort into everything that she does. She is kind, respectful and always willing to lend a helping hand whether it be to a classmate or a teacher. We are so proud of her and love having her as a part of our classroom family. Keep shining Abby!

Nicole Eigenbrodt

It is my pleasure to announce Nicole Eigenbrodt as Rider of Month for January! Nicole is consistently a hard worker with an excellent attitude, who strives for quality. Her work ethic is exceptional. Nicole is always prepared and willingly participates in all class discussions. She is kind and respectful to both classmates and teachers alike. Nicole brightens up our classroom each day! Congratulations, Nicole!

Mackenzie Samascott

Mackenzie Samascott is our pick for this month's Rider of the Month. We love having Mackenzie in our class as she is a leader and someone her classmates look to for support. Her work is consistently top notch and she is always prepared and ready to begin every lesson. Mackenzie is that student that every teacher wants in their class because she is kind, respectful, and has a great sense of humor with not only her peers, but adults as well. Mackenzie is a shining light in our classroom!! Great Job and well deserved, Mackenzie!!

AubreeAna Pinchbeck

Aubree is a responsible, kind hearted and compassionate person. She is aware of her surroundings and goes the extra mile to make sure others have what they need for class. She is dedicated to her school work and improved her work habits in and out of school since first quarter. Aubree asks appropriate questions and seeks to do her best every day. It is a pleasure to have her in class. Keep up the good work.

Lisbeth Castilla-Fugon

Lisbeth is a conscientious, hardworking student. She has made great strides in acquiring the English language and it has been a joy to watch her grow. Lisbeth comes to school each day ready to learn; it is exciting to watch her face light up as she learns a new skill or uses newly acquired English words. Her willingness to try and take risks is admirable. Lisbeth has started making friends and social connections and students seek her out to work with her. This is a testament to her pleasant disposition. We feel lucky to have Lisbeth on our 6th grade team and can't wait to watch as she continues to achieve.

Landon Filli

Team 7 is proud to announce Landon Filli as Rider of the Month for January! Landon consistently shows maturity and perseverance each day at the Middle School. He has a strong work ethic and is always ready and willing to work with others. Landon regularly takes responsibility for his work, even when he is absent. Landon is one of the nicest and most polite students on the team. He is always willing to go out of his way for his classmates and teachers. He is truly an asset to our classes. Congratulations, Landon!

Julia Dwelley

Team 7 is pleased to announce our Student for the month of January, Julia Dwelley. Julia has demonstrated a true commitment to her studies. Her hard work in the classroom has allowed her to achieve high academic grades. In addition to her coursework, Julia participates in classroom discussions, often asking questions that lead to good classroom discussion. Julia works very well with her peers, and is a very polite and respectful student. Out of the classroom Julia is a very accomplished athlete on the school's track team. Congratulations Julia!
