

Ethan Berlin

It is my pleasure to announce Ethan Berlin as our September Rider of the Month. Ethan is a genuinely kind and caring young man. He comes to school each day ready to learn. Although Ethan is quiet, he advocates for himself when he is unsure of what he needs to do. Ethan demonstrates responsibility on a daily basis, always working hard and putting forth great effort. Great job Ethan! Congratulations!

Grace Bornhorst

I am proud to announce Grace Bornhorst has earned our Rider of the Month. She is a wonderful member of our 4th grade class. She comes to school with a smile and willingness to learn. In these first few weeks of school Grace has gained confidence and independence. She shares ideas and contributes to discussions. I appreciate that she is always helpful. Congratulations!

Lana Apple

It is a pleasure to honor Lana Apple with the Rider of the Month award. Responsibility, independence, and confidence are already showing in the first month of fifth grade. She is growing as a leader and learner, frequently offering ideas and insights in discussions and challenges. Lana never hesitates to offer help and support to adults and fellow classmates and has the ability to sense what is needed without saying a word. Thank you for being a valuable part of our class and school community. Congratulations, Lana!

Niko VanAlstyne

It's my pleasure to announce Niko VanAlstyne as our Rider of the Month for September. Niko is new to Ichabod Crane this year and has been quick to make friends, get involved and show his enthusiasm for learning, as if he has always been a Rider. He is always positive and in a good mood. Niko is ready and willing to lend a hand, at any time, whether it's for an adult or his peers.. He is open to suggestions, willing to listen and make the changes necessary for success. He always wants to do his best. For these reasons, I congratulate Niko for being our Rider of the Month.

Teo Nacamulli-Tabet

It is a great pleasure to honor Teo as one of our 6th grade riders of the month! Teo is new to the district and has adjusted amazingly well. His kindness and respect for others has made it easy for him to make several friends. He takes his school work very seriously therefore enjoys success in all his classes. He works very well with all the other students in his classes. He ran for student council and won! We know we are in great hands with Teo representing Mrs. Warner's homeroom.

Dillon O'Connor

Dillon has started 6th grade off great. He is a hard worker, and always puts his best effort in. He is always willing to help with a kind smile and his easy going demeanor. He is especially helpful to his peers who have learning differences, helping them catch up on notes or quietly explaining directions.

Jacob Cruz

Team 7 is proud to select Jacob Cruz for Rider of the Month for September. Jacob is an extremely hard worker in the classroom. He puts a tremendous amount of effort into all of his assignments in every class and always strives to do his best. Jacob is always willing to lend a hand to a friend in need. Jacob also embodies the rider spirit as a member of the Boys Modified Soccer Team. He is the heart and soul of the team and is a role model to the other players. Whether he is navigating the trials and tribulations of the classroom or weaving through defenders on the field, Jacob exemplifies true grit and determination. For all of these reasons and many more we are honored to have Jacob on our team and wish him a great 7th grade year.

Addison Svensson

The Seventh Grade Team is pleased to announce Addison Svensson as September Rider of the Month. Addison has started off this school year marvelously. She consistently gets her work done and hands her assignments in on time. She is always raising her hand and thoughtfully participates in class discussions. Besides being an exemplary student, she is also an athlete and a great teammate of the Modified Girls Volleyball Team. Addison shows the Rider spirit both in and out of the classroom. We are thrilled to have Addison on our team. Congratulations, Addison!

Enzo Lazzara

Team 7/8 is proud to announce that our September Rider of the month is Enzo Lazzara. Right off the bat, teachers noticed that Enzo exemplifies true Rider spirit. He is genuinely engaged in class activities and does a great job in his academics. He is the first to volunteer to help teachers or participate in school events. Enzo has many great friends, plays sports every season and maintains good grades. All in all, Enzo is a wonderful role model and leader for our Rider community. Great job Enzo!

Evan Ross

Team 7/8 is pleased to announce that Evan Ross is our September Rider of the Month. Even though it has only been a month, it is hard not to notice that Evan is a person of good character. He shows patience and kindness to his classmates no matter who they are. Evan is helpful, friendly and hard-working. A scholar/athlete, Evan can be depended on to earn good grades and be a team player on the field. It is a privilege to have a true Rider like Evan on the team. Great work Evan! Congratulations

Annabelle Prestipino

Team 8 feels so lucky to have Annabelle Prestipino on our team! She exemplifies Rider Kindness. Annabelle is an exceptionally supportive partner; she can be paired with anyone and will provide the same friendly encouragement, making her peers feel comfortable and able to rise to a challenge. Annabelle is respectful and hard-working. We are so excited to see all of her success this year! Thank you for being you, Annabelle!

Xavier Sadowski

Team 8 already sees Xavier as such an asset in the classroom! He positively participates, and holds himself to a high academic standard. He handles his responsibilities well. Xavier is always willing to work with anyone. He naturally takes on a polite, thoughtful, supportive role in partnerships, making him a regular Rider Role Model. We know 8th grade will be a great year for Xavier.

