

Madeline Welcome

I am pleased to announce Madeline Welcome as our Rider of the Month! Madeline is a hard-working student who consistently puts forth exceptional effort in all her assignments. Her dedication to her school work and her willingness to complete extra credit assignments make her a role model for her peers. Additionally, she is kind and respectful, always ready to lend a helping hand to others in the classroom. You should be proud of yourself Madeline. Keep up the great work!

Grayson Graham

Grayson, this is your year. You're using your energy and focus to become the finest version of you. Kindness and thoughtfulness were always within you, but now, it's being shared with everyone. Even better, your effort is revealed in the work you are producing. You don't give up until it's your personal best. (And your sense of humor really is enjoyed by all.) Thank you for letting us be a part of your transformation.

Anaiah McArthur

I am pleased to announce Anaiah McArthur as December's Rider of the Month. Anaiah is a hard working student who is engaged and always participating. She has a kind heart and is always willing to help an adult or a classmate. Her ability to work collaboratively with anyone, at any time, shows her positivity and eagerness to please. Anaiah is the perfect example of what it means to be an Ichabod Crane Rider of the Month. Congratulations and keep smiling!

Gabriel Moran

The sixth grade team is excited to announce that Gabe Moran is our Rider of the Month. Gabe is consistently motivated to do his best academically and athletically. Gabe is a leader within his classes, always volunteering and contributing to class discussions. Gabe is a genuinely kind individual, and he cares greatly about his school and community. Gabe is independent and shows up ready to learn every day. We are very proud of you, Gabe! Keep up the excellent work!

Caylee Rawlins

We feel so lucky to have Caylee Rawlins on our team! She is everything a Rider of the month is. Caylee is exceptionally supportive during group work; she provides friendly authentic encouragement, making her peers feel comfortable and able to rise to a challenge no matter who she is grouped with. On the social side, Caylee is kind and compassionate to her peers and teachers. When she observes someone struggling with their emotions or health she does whatever she can to help. Caylee takes her academic success very seriously as well, she is a very hard worker. Outside of school, Caylee enjoys playing basketball and writing. We are so excited to see all of her success this year and value her as a role model for all! Thank you for being you, Caylee!

Jameison Jablanski

Team 7 is pleased to announce Jameison Jablanski as a rider of the month! Jameison is a hard working student who is actively engaged in our classrooms. He is always willing to participate positively in class discussions. Jameison sets an excellent example in group work, encouraging his peers to work together in order to achieve success. We look forward to watching Jameison continue to grow as a student and leader for team seven.

Shelcea Andino Bonilla

We are delighted to have Shelcea as our Rider of the Month! So far this year, Shelcea has been a leader in more ways than one. She is responsible for herself and her work, making sure what she completes is to the best of her ability and reflects her hard work. She can be relied on to work in any group, and collaborate with each student she is paired up with. She will go out of her way to help others, even earning herself a Most Helpful Award for Quarter 1 in Math, voted on by her peers! Her focus and kindness to others are admirable and we can't wait to see how Shelcea grows in Team 7 the rest of this year! Way to go, Shelcea!

Brooke Ryan

Team 7/8 is proud to announce that Brooke Ryan is our December Rider of the Month! We feel incredibly fortunate to have Brooke as part of our team. Brooke is friendly, polite and well liked. In addition to her warm personality, Brooke excels academically and is fully engaged in her classes. She participates thoughtfully, offers unique and interesting insight, and consistently puts forth her best effort. Most of all, we love Brooke's outlook on life. She is creative, quirky and imaginative, which makes her really fun to talk to. We can't wait to see what Brooke can do in the future! Congratulations, Brooke, on this well-deserved recognition!

Sydney Becker

Team 7/8 is happy to announce that Sydney Becker is our December Rider of the Month. Sydney is an outstanding individual who excels both in and out of the classroom. A top competitor in both track and dance, Sydney's dedication and talent shine through in everything she does. At school, she is known as an exceptional student who always gives her best effort. Her ability to collaborate with anyone and her reliability in completing tasks make her a fantastic role model for her peers. Above all, Sydney is a kind and supportive friend, a cooperative teammate, and an absolute sweetheart. Her warm personality, politeness, and likability have made her a beloved member of our team. We are so excited to see all the incredible things Sydney will accomplish in the future. Congratulations, Sydney, on this well-deserved honor!

Olivia Allard

Team 8 is happy to recognize Olivia Allard as our Rider Role Model! Olivia is kind, thoughtful, hard working, and conscientious. She has demonstrated leadership skills in and out of the classroom. As a mentor to younger basketball players to a supportive positive peer partner, Olivia gives her best with genuine kindness, patience, and support. Olivia also seeks opportunities to be her best. She seeks and accepts constructive feedback to always improve. We appreciate having Olivia in all of these roles and we cheer on her continued success!

Christopher Tapia

When students and teachers are asked about Christopher Tapia, they all have the same answer: Chris is the nicest, hardest working student! Everyone loves to have Chris in classes. He is always engaged, thoughtful, friendly, and focused. He wants to do his best and works diligently! Chris is always ready to help a classmate and works well with others. He even asks for extra practice! We are so proud of the kindness and effort, and we feel so lucky to have Chris on our team!
