

High School Riders of the Month

JANUARY 2025

#riderpride #ichabodcares

CHARLOTTE PELIZZA

Charlotte is a positive person, supportive of her classmates and teammates. She's a leader on the court and in the classroom.

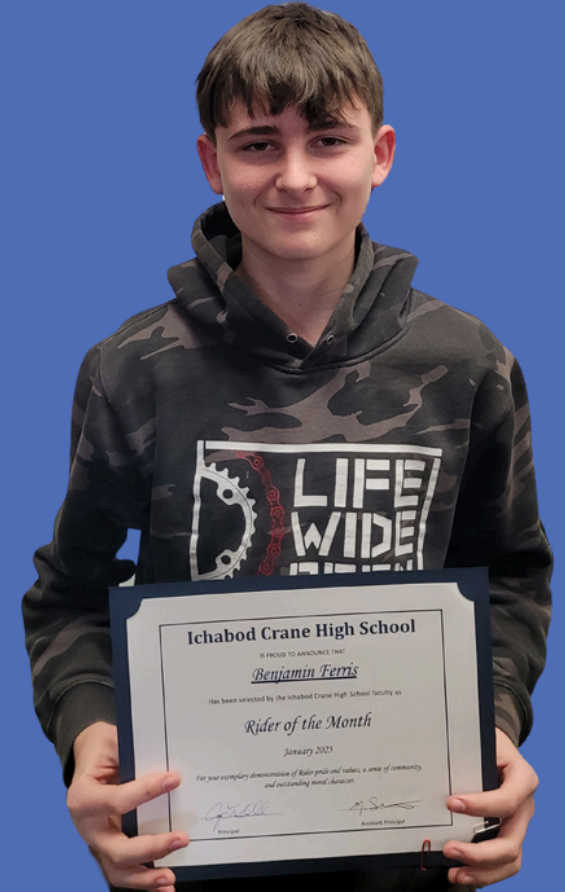

NATALIE HICKEY

Natalie is a freshman who consistently goes above and beyond in her assignments, often adding layers and steps to her work that bring more to the table than was asked. She is curious and thoughtful and always looks for ways to improve her skills and to learn more. Natalie's class participation, especially in regards to discussions, is stellar and insightful. Beyond Natalie's academic excellence, Natalie is a kind and supportive classmate. She is a joy to have in class.

BENJAMIN FERRIS

Ben has been a great help in the classroom. He has been so on top of his work that he has volunteered to do additional tasks around the classroom. He is always pleasant and has a smile on his face and is willing to help others.

ELIZABETH SPENSIERI

Libby Spensieri is a leader in our class. She consistently puts forth excellent effort on class assignments and is not afraid to share her thoughts during conversations about complex topics. Her leadership during class discussions shows a willingness to explore possible analysis of challenging texts, which in turn helps everyone in the class gain a deeper understanding of nuanced concepts. Her artistic ability also allows her creative ways of expressing her understanding of texts and demonstrates her ability to explain her thinking in multiple ways.

GRACE VINCHIARELLO

Grace is always looking after others. Recently, she noticed that a teacher was in need and she found another teacher to help them. Her empathy for others is commendable.

DENISE MIRANDA

Denise is always engaged in class activities and gives unique insights to class discussion. Whether it is through discussing content in class or completing the course material, it is clear that she takes her education seriously. Class is always better because Denise is in it!

LEONIE EHRHARDT

Leonie is an incredibly hard-working student who has adapted well to her time here. She is a creative problem solver who is insightful and caring. She volunteers and is very involved in helping with the volleyball team and is an active member of the track team.

EMMA HOLMBERG

She has been working really hard this semester. She has dedicated time to the senior class, helping orchestrate class fundraisers as well as dedicating time to other clubs as an officer.

Congrats!